PRESS RELEASE

Date: August 22, 2023

Re: Oscar Stilley v. Donald J. Trump, et al

To: Associated Press, other interested media outlets

Summary: Lawsuit for declaratory judgment that Donald Trump is not eligible to run for or occupy the office of President of the United States.

Abstract: On this August 22, 2023, a civil complaint against Donald J. Trump, John Thurston, Secretary of State of the State of Arkansas, and 12 other individuals, will be filed in the District Court for the Eastern District of Arkansas. It was delivered by FedEx at 10:11 AM today. Presumably the complaint will be filed and available on PACER by early to mid-afternoon.

The gravamen of the complaint is that Donald Trump is not entitled to have his name on any ballot for the office of President of the United States, or to occupy that office in case of a successful campaign, due to his insurrection January 6, 2021. Mr. Thurston should be judicially forbidden to place Trump's name on any primary or general election ballot. Trump's fellow insurrectionists should likewise be judicially forbidden to hold any office of profit or trust under any state or the United States.
